MEMORANDUM

To : Surf Life Saving Sydney Competitors and Members
CC : SLSS Surf Sports Committee

From : Wayne Druery – Director of Surf Sports

Date : 15 August 2014

Subject : URGENT - Scrutineering

To all clubs and competitors Surf Life Saving Sydney.

I have attached a Memorandum from Surf Life Saving NSW dated 3 February 2014 in relation to the scrutineering of competition surf craft. This memorandum was disseminated to all clubs and competitors in February this year however I again ask that you make yourselves familiar with its contents.

To assist all competitors in complying with the memorandum Surf Life Saving Sydney scrutineered close to 500 pieces of surf craft in the 2013/14 season. To further assist competitors and clubs to be compliant by 31 October 2014 – Surf Life Saving Sydney will be scrutineering surf craft at the following times and locations:

1. North Cronulla SLSC - Sunday 14 September 2014 8am to 11.30am
2. South Maroubra SLSC – Saturday 18 October 2014 9am to 12pm

All competitors and clubs are reminded of the importance of ensuring all competition surf craft are compliant by 31 October.

Basically 'Red & White' scrutineering stickers expire on 31 October 2014. After this date all surf craft utilised in competition, which are more than 12 months old on the day of competition, must be affixed with a 'Black & White' scrutineering sticker.

Further dates for scrutineering will be held after 31 October however dates, locations and times are yet to be confirmed.
