

nipper natter

Issue 11 2016

2 December 2016

congratulations ...

Well done to everyone who braved the surf and the wind at last week's 4 Way Carnival at Elouera and South Cronulla another fantastic carnival with North Cronulla well represented. All the Nippers were amazing and it was great to see such lovely team spirit. Many personal bests were achieved - well done to everyone who gave it a go.

emergency action plan (eap)

10.30am sunday 4 dec

This Sunday we will conduct our yearly Emergency Action Plan (Evacuation from the beach), which was implemented at North Cronulla SLSC last season for nippers. This is to ensure that our club is ready to go in the event such an evacuation is actually necessary. Age Groups are to assemble on the grass area by their respective colour coded area where we meet each Sunday. This Sunday we will have a member from Sydney Branch coming to North Cronulla to observe and sign off us off for the season that our EAP procedures are correct.

It is requested that all members who are Bronzed train and will be participating in nipper activities on Sunday attend a briefing at 8.00am near the boatshed.
